Translation (Psalm 51): Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness according to the multitude of thy mercies do away with my offences. Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness and cleanse me from my sin. For I acknowledge my faults, and my sin is ever before me. Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight – that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou are judged. Behold, I was shapen in wickedness; and in sin hath my mother conceived me. But lo, thou requires truth in my soul, and shalt make me to understand thy secret wisdom. Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean. Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness: that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. Turn thy face from my sins, and put out all my misdeeds. Make me a clean heart, O god, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy holy spirit from me. Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy holy spirit from me.

Translation: Evening of roses, let us go out to the grove. Myrrh, fragrant spices and incense are a threshold for your feet. Night falls slowly and the wind of roses is blowing. Let me whisper you a song, secretly; a song of love. Dawn, a dove is cooing. Your head is filled with dew. Your mouth is a rose unto the morning. I will pick it for myself.
