Section I.c Enrollment

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled.

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Additional guidance on reporting race and ethnicity data.

Methods courses are blocked for all education candidates during the fall term of the senior year. Candidates begin to work with their student teaching placements as they implement curriculum in small group and whole class formats. The Director of Teacher Education serves as the College liaison to the partnership schools at the exploration and synthesis Phases. The Director consults with local schools to determine specific placements for interns and student teachers. The Director also provides orientation to the candidates to define expectations for candidates' performance based on criteria established in collaboration with partner schools.

The Unit Assessment System provides feedback on candidate performance and eligibility at several benchmarks in the education program. Field experience evaluations have implications for advancement through checkpoints, and are instrumental in the development of candidates' knowledge, skills, and dispositions. In order to better gather information about field experiences, evaluative forms are gathered on candidate performances throughout orientation, professional education courses, methods, and student teaching. This system successfully gathers information about individual field experiences for checkpoint review as well as for program evaluation of field experience components.

Professional education courses focus on constructing knowledge of curriculum and pedagogy in relationship to deepening construction of knowledge of self, students, and schools. Each course in this phase of the program requires candidates to complete a departmental artifact, many of which align with reflections of field experiences and case studies investigating pedagogical performances in individual interventions and remediation through small group work. These artifacts have been carefully aligned with the CARE Model, the InTASC Standards, and standards from the Indiana Office of Educator Licensing and Development that tie with ensuring that all P-12 students learn.

Section II Annual Goals - Mathematics

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. ($205(a)(1)(A)(ii), $206(a))

Information about teacher shortage areas can be found at http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ope/pol/tsa.html.

Please provide the information below about your program's goals to increase the number of prospective teachers in mathematics in each of three academic years.

Academic year 2013-14

Did your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2013-14?

Yes

How many prospective teachers did your program plan to add in mathematics in 2013-14?

2

Did your program meet the goal for prospective teachers set in mathematics in 2013-14?

Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

The department collaborates with the mathematics department in order to recruit potential viable candidates. Additionally, the department is working with the admissions staff to recruit potential candidates.

Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

We have met with the Mathematics Department to encourage them to explain to prospective students the option of a Mathematics Education degree. In addition, to talk with their advisees about the option of Mathematics as a major but secondary education as their minor. In addition, we are working with the Mathematics Department to possibly add a Mathematics minor for Elementary Education majors so they can be licensed in Middle School Mathematics as well as Elementary Education.

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

We have lost one Mathematics Education major in 2015 and only brought in one first year student who is currently hoping to be admitted into the program. It is difficult to improve the program with so few students interested in Math Education.

Academic year 2014-15

Is your program preparing teachers in mathematics in 2014-15?

Yes

How many prospective teachers did your program plan to add in mathematics in 2014-15?

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

We have been working with the Mathematics Department to identify talented candidates who may be excellent teaching candidates. We also have been organizing events with sciences and mathematics seminars to discuss how a career in teaching may be of benefit.

Academic year 2015-16

Will your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2015-16?

Yes

How many prospective teachers does your program plan to add in mathematics in 2015-16?

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

We are excited about our prospective teachers for the 2015-16 year, as they are strong students. We are also hoping they will encourage first year students next year to pursue a degree in Mathematics Education.

Section II Assurances

Please certify that your institution is in compliance with the following assurances. ($205(a)(1)(A)(iii), $206(b)) Note: Be prepared to provide documentation and evidence for your responses, when requested, to support the following assurances.

Preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

All of our candidates are required to have a variety of field experiences that include children from diverse backgrounds. These experiences are both urban and rural, with children with special needs and high ability, with children whose first language is not English, and from all socioeconomic classes. Religious diversity is present as well. This is tracked in the department of education. In response to the recent licensure changes in Indiana, we have revised and revamped our programs to include more literacy instruction, methods of teaching English Learners, and content-specific pedagogy. Additionally, we have strengthened the behavior management and conflict resolution requirements for all candidates.

We meet twice annually with our community stakeholders to receive input and guidance as we shape our program to meet the needs of our communities and the learners in the area. The faculty in our unit works closely with the Indiana State Teachers Association, NCATE, Indiana Department of Education, Indiana Association for Colleges of Teacher Education, and the Association of Teacher Educators to stay abreast of what is current and needed in schools. Lastly, the faculty requires candidates to participate in professional development in a variety of areas such as technology for the classroom, bullying prevention, reading strategies, RTI, differentiation, and others to assist with a variety of topics- all with the goal of meeting these assurances.

Section IV Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

State

NCATE

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?

Section V Use of Technology

Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction Yes
- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning

Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

In each education class, the integration of technology is modeled and expected. Candidates use Inspiration, ExpressionWeb, and other software. In the special education courses, they discuss various forms of assistive technology. This assures preparation of teachers not only for the use of technology, but for its use pertaining to universal design for learning applications, too. In addition, we have a SMART interactive whiteboard in one of our education-designated classrooms and faculty are using 1:1 on ipads with the literacy block students. Faculty and candidates are learning to use the technology. All of our candidates are expected to integrate technology into lesson plans as appropriate for maximum engagement of their students. All teacher candidates take Educational Psychology where they examine assessment data available to teachers and use statistical knowledge necessary to understand, analyze, and use that data for the purpose of planning future instruction.

For the purpose of program review, our unit uses the Desire to Learn (D2L) course management system to collect data. We have discovered that its ability to generate data is not as effective as hoped, therefore, the software is used to collect and store the data, but the actual statistical analysis is completed in Excel.

We have recently purchased several mini iPads and have a pilot program with our class of 2015-16 using them in various courses.

Section VI Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
- Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
   Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

All teacher candidates take at least one course pertaining to children with special needs and differentiation to meet their students' learning and behavioral needs. Teaching students with limited English proficiency is integrated into the foundational education courses required of all teacher candidates, but in compliance with new licensure requirements in Indiana, methods for teaching English Learners has been added to an existing for all grade and secondary education candidates, while a new course called Literacy and English Learners, has been created for elementary candidates. Additionally, all lesson plans must be written with adaptations for a variety of special needs and enrichment for students with high ability. Participation in an IEP team is covered in the foundational education classes required of all candidates as well. Lastly, all candidates are encouraged to participate in at least one IEP conference while student teaching.

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

Yes

- participate as a member of individualized education program teams Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

Those candidates adding special education licensure to their general education preparation are required to meet all of the expectations listed above plus more. These candidates have additional coursework designed to help them acquire the skills needed to be an effective special educator including modifying and adapting lessons, conducting functional behavioral assessments, writing IEPs and participating in the conferences, writing Behavior Intervention Plans and implementing them, and learning how to assess and use that assessment to drive future instruction for students with disabilities. Integrated into all of these courses are activities that pertain to teaching students with limited English proficiency as well. Additionally, at least one additional field experience and half of the student teaching semester is under the direction of a special educator for these candidates.

Section VII Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card. The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

Manchester University historically has had a high rate of graduation into appropriate employment or graduate school acceptance. 97% of most recent graduates were hired in their field. Our programs that are listed as K-12 on the transcript (PE, HPE, Adapted PE, Music, and Art) are really prepared as Preschool through grade 12, in compliance with the state licensure requirements. These candidates do have experience with preschoolers. This has been corrected in the registrar's office, but that is not reflected at this time on the transcript.
