Manchester University

MISSION STATEMENT

Manchester University respects the infinite worth of every individual and graduates persons of ability and conviction who draw upon their education and faith to lead principled, productive, and compassionate lives that improve the human condition.

HISTORY

Manchester University, founded in 1889, is an independent liberal arts university of the Church of the Brethren. In 2018-2019, 1,530 students from 26 states and 21 countries studied here.

Manchester University traces its origins to the Roanoke (Ind.) Classical Seminary founded by the United Brethren Church in 1860. The Seminary became Manchester College in 1889, when the school was moved to North Manchester. In 1895, members of the Church of the Brethren purchased the campus and this affiliation continues. Mount Morris College (Ill.) merged with Manchester College in 1932.

The University welcomes students of all faiths and celebrates its relationship with the Church of the Brethren. On July 1, 2012, Manchester College became Manchester University and, in fall 2012, students began studying at Manchester's Fort Wayne campus, home of the Pharmacy and Pharmacogenomics Programs.

Manchester has been fully accredited since 1932 by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. The Teacher Education Program is accredited by the Indiana Professional Standards Board and the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education. The Social Work Program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. The Athletic Training Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education. The Doctor of Pharmacy Program is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education.

VALUES STATEMENT

As a community of higher education rooted in the liberal arts and the traditions of the Church of the Brethren, Manchester University values:

- Learning, because high academic expectations in an environment combining liberal arts and professional preparation equip graduates to live healthy, productive and principled lives;
- Faith, because our diverse faiths call us to make the world a kinder and better place, establish justice, build peace amid strife, and model lives of agape (selfless love), tikkun olam (repairing a broken world), and salam (peace);
- Service, because committing self in service to others connects faith with action and abilities with convictions;
- Integrity, because honesty and trust are the foundations of teaching and learning, enriching, enduring relationships, and strong communities;
- Diversity, because understanding differences develops respect for ethnic, cultural and religious pluralism; an international consciousness; and an appreciation for the infinite worth of every person; and
- Community, because a positive community sharpens self-identity, promotes acceptance of the demands of responsible citizenship, and transforms conflict into mutual respect.

TRADITION

Each year, immediately following commencement ceremonies, our new graduates receive a small oak tree from the Alumni Association. An iconic symbol of the University, the oak represents the University's hope for our graduates – that they be strong, resilient and awe-inspiring, and that they rely on their deep roots to soar.

Academic Ceremonies and Regalia

Academic dress, inspired centuries ago in Europe, has evolved in the United States since colonial times. Today most colleges and universities, including Manchester, observe the academic dress code of the American Council on Education.

A scholar's highest degree determines the robe. Gowns for the master's and doctoral degrees are usually ankle length and, for bachelor's and master's degrees, untrimmed. A doctor's degree gown is more elaborate, with velvet facing and three velvet bars on full, bell-shaped sleeves.

Mortarboards are the standard headwear except for persons with doctorates who may chose a soft, rounded tam. Hoods, once worn on the head for warmth, are now draped over the shoulders and are longer for doctors than for masters.

Colors help tell the story. The color of the hood lining indicates the university where the graduate degree was earned. The color of the hood trim, satin for masters and velvet for doctorates, identifies the scholar's field. For those with doctorates, the velvet facing and bars of the gown may be black or the color of the academic discipline. Once only black, the gown itself can now be in the color of the university awarding the degree.

Pharmacy Graduation with Distinction

Students graduating with Latin honors wear gold cords draped around the neck. To graduate with distinction, a candidate for the Doctor of Pharmacy degree must have completed a minimum of 147 semester hours and accumulated a GPA at or above 3.5. There are three levels of graduation with honors: summa cum laude (with highest honors) requires a GPA of 3.9 to 4.0; magna cum laude (with high honors) requires a GPA of 3.7 to 3.89; and cum laude (with honors) requires a GPA of 3.5 to 3.69.

Undergraduate and Master of Science in Pharmacogenomics Graduation with Distinction

Students graduating with Latin honors wear gold cords. Summa cum laude (with highest honors) requires a grade point average of 3.950 to 4.000; magna cum laude (with high honors) requires a GPA of 3.850 to 3.949; and cum laude (with honors) requires a GPA of 3.65 to 3.849. At least 96 semester hours in residence at MU are required for a baccalaureate degree and 42 for a Master of Science in Pharmacogenomics.

Undergraduate Honors Diploma

The honors diploma is awarded to seniors who have maintained a grade point average of at least 3.5, completed fifteen semester hours of honors coursework, and successfully completed an individualized honors project of no less than three additional semester hours. Students graduating with the honors diploma wear an Honors Program graduate medallion engraved with the University crest.

Alpha Mu Gamma - National Collegiate Foreign Language Honor Society. The cord colors are yellow.

Beta Beta Beta - Biology Honors Society. The cord colors are blood red (zoology) and leaf green (botany).

Psi Chi - International Honors Society for Psychology. The medallion colors are dark blue and platinum.

Pi Gamma Mu – International Honor Society in Social Sciences (Indiana Theta Chapter). The cord colors are white and royal blue.

Pi Sigma Alpha - National Political Science Honor Society. The medallion color is red.

Sigma Tau Delta - International English Honor Society. The cord colors are rich cardinal red and black. The medallion colors are red, black and white.

Honorary Degree Recipient

DOCTOR OF LITERATURE

Born in Harrisonburg, Va., in 1946, and raised in Illinois and Ohio, Paul Hoover played basketball and majored in English at Manchester where professors recognized his talents and encouraged him to write. After graduating with distinction in 1968, Hoover, a conscientious objector during the Vietnam War, performed his alternative service at a Chicago hospital, an experience that inspired his first novel, Saigon, Illinois.

While still in Chicago, he earned his master's degree in English at the University of Illinois-Chicago. He was poet-in-residence at Columbia College, where he taught for nearly 28 years and founded the Columbia Poetry Review. Since 2003, Hoover has been professor of creative writing at San Francisco State University. He is widely known as the editor of the anthology Postmodern American Poetry and, with his wife Maxine Chernoff, is founder and co-editor of the annual literary magazine New American Writing.

Through the years, he has published more than a dozen poetry collections and a collection of essays, in addition to his novel. His poems have appeared in many magazines, including the prestigious Paris Review, and in many anthologies, including The Best American Poetry.

A resident of Mill Valley, Calif., Hoover has won numerous awards for his poetry, including the Carl Sandburg Award and a Fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts. In 1990, Manchester University recognized Hoover with the Alumni Honor Award.

Pledge of Social and Environmental Responsibility

Students and faculty who support The Graduation Pledge wear green ribbons on their gowns. This pledge is a commitment to make a difference in the world. Manchester University served as the headquarters of The Graduation Pledge Alliance from 1996 to 2007. The Pledge is sponsored by the Peace Studies Institute.

(green)

“I pledge to explore and take into account the social and environmental consequences of any job I consider and will try to improve these aspects of any organizations for which I work.”
