

Litany of Gratitude and Goodbye

One: The work of the University and the learning of her students is not confined to any building, but we give thanks for the minds that were opened and the dreams that were dreamed in the administration building.

All: We give thanks for the learning done here.

One: Classes taught, meetings held, visions shared, dreams come to fruition, leadership developed, prayers heard, songs sung . . .

All: We give thanks for the work done here.

Litany of Gratitude and Goodbye

One: Relationships began and blossomed. Students, faculty, staff, and their families made themselves at home.

All: We give thanks for the growth that happened here.

One: We remember the stuff of this building, wooden desks, creaky floors, beautiful chimes, Wampler backstage corners, comfy lounges, towering ceilings . . .

All: We give thanks for the treasures that surrounded us here.

One: Learning, Faith, Service – all of these things happened in the Administration Building and these things will continue to happen at the University as we step into this new reality.
