2005 - 2006 PRESIDENT'S REPORT AND HONOR ROLL
MANCHESTER COLLEGE

“For all that has been — THANKS!

For all that will be — YES!”

- Dag Hammarskjöld

D

Dag Hammarskjöld's affirmation of the past and the future is the perfect perspective for the start of an academic year! We affirm all 117 years of Manchester College — the brave pioneers who founded it, the decades of students, the life-transforming faculty, the friends who support the College. We are thankful for what has been!

What a year we have just had!! This annual report is a celebration of a fiscal year that gives us much to celebrate and also directs us to important work ahead.

We celebrated the conclusion of the largest, longest and most effective campaign in the history of the College. The Next Step! Campaign surpassed its original $49 million goal with a total of more than $71 million. We met all the individual goals within the campaign and finished a year ahead of schedule.

We opened the Science Center in August 2005 and dedicated it during two festive days of inauguration in mid-September. We welcomed more than a thousand guests to campuses for these celebrations. We broke ground in April for the renovation and expansion of the College Union. Funds for both buildings were raised or pledged before the first ground was broken.

Our Fulbright successes continued with our 19th student winner in 11 years now studying in Brussels. We have more Fulbrights than the University of Notre and Indiana University; and we have more per capita than Yale and Stanford. What a tribute to our faculty who serve as mentors and to our students who seek them out.

Each day, we are guided by our six strategic priorities. They direct us to

- make the College more widely visible
- build mission-driven academic, student life, co-curricular and athletic programs
- increase enrollments
- develop comprehensive plans for facilities, technology, energy-saving
- attract and retain exceptional faculty and staff
- ensure sustainable financial health

Our energetic cabinet leads the strategic initiatives, and campus support is wide and intense.

We hope this annual report also gives you a fuller sense of where our money comes from and where it goes. The report also highlights key programs and introduces the Board of Trustees.

The Manchester College community is energized! We are energized to help our students learn, energized to design facilities and programs that meet the needs of those who use them, energized to raise funds for these needs and energized to celebrate the core mission of the College. We are grateful for the thousands of people who energize us! Support from donors is essential to all we do to transform students' lives.

For all that has been — thanks! For all that will be — YES!

Mission Statement

Manchester College respects the infinite worth of every individual and graduates persons of ability and conviction who draw upon their education and faith to lead principled, productive, and compassionate lives that improve the human condition.

Values Statement

As a primarily undergraduate, residential, liberal arts community rooted in the tradition of the Church of the Brethren, Manchester College values:

- Learning, because high academic expectations in an environment combining liberal arts and professional preparation equip graduates to live healthy, productive, and principled lives;
- Faith, because our diverse faiths call us to make the world a kinder and better place, establish justice, build peace amid strife, and model lives of agape (selfless love), tikkun olam (repairing a broken world), and salam (peace);
- Service, because committing self in service to others connects faith with action and abilities with convictions;
- Integrity, because honesty and trust are the foundations of teaching and learning; enriching, enduring relationships, and strong communities;
- Diversity, because understanding differences develops respect for ethnic, cultural, and religious pluralism; an international consciousness; and an appreciation for the infinite worth of every person; and
- Community, because a positive community sharpens self-identity, promotes acceptance of the demands of responsible citizenship, and transforms conflict into mutual respect.

2005 - 2006 Highlights

First-year students set academic records

Manchester enrolled its brightest class in history in August 2005. The first-year students' average SAT score was 1,050, the highest ever for the College. The new students placed in the upper 27 percent of their high school graduating classes – another MC record.

Science Center is about more than science

On Aug. 31, 2005, students of all disciplines flowed into the Science Center for the first time for classes. With its well-appointed Flory Auditorium, classrooms, labs, faculty offices, technical abilities and Physicians Atrium, the $17 million Science Center quickly became the College hub.

14th president takes office

Faculty leader and alumnae Jo Young Switzer, with strong family ties to the College and the Church of the Brethren, was inaugurated on Sept. 17, 2005, as the College's 14th president and the first woman to lead a Church of the Brethren college.

Top value, "Best College" say college guides

Manchester College ranked among the "Best Colleges" in the Midwest and continued to gain attention as a "Great School at a Great Price" in the popular college guides. U.S. News & World Report dubbed Manchester an outstanding value – ranking it 5th in the Midwest among schools in its category.

The Next Step! raises $70.8 million

Generous philanthropists made history with The Next Step! A Campaign to Strengthen Manchester College. The $70.8 million raised brought dramatic change to the campus, faculty and program development, technology, and the scholarship fund.

Grads post 97% job placement

Almost 97 percent of the Class of 2005 had jobs or were in grad school or full-time volunteer service within six months of graduation – a rate well above the national average. The statistic is no estimate; the College contacted every one of its 213 May 2005 grads. Career Services provided counseling, job research and connections.

Spartans win Commissioners Cup

Manchester Spartans won the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference's inaugural Commissioner's Cup for amassing the most points in HCAC championships during the 2005-2006 seasons. About 350 student athletes participated in MC sports during 2005-2006.

Transformation begins on College Union

With the April 22, 2006 groundbreaking, construction swiftly began on the $7.5 million transformation of the College Union, fully funded with donations in hand. When complete in August 2007, the Campus Store, Career Services and Student Activities will join the dining commons, Campus Post Office and The Oaks under one roof for the first time.

MC leads state in Fulbrights

Wendy Matheny '04 was the 19th MC graduate to receive the U.S. government's prestigious Fulbright scholarship, continuing the College's leadership in Fulbrights per-student among all Indiana universities and colleges. Two faculty members are Fulbright Scholars for academic achievement and extraordinary leadership potential: Dr. Greg Clark (physics) and Dr. Steve Naragon (philosophy).

Superb faculty receives recognition

More than 40 faculty members received grants for study ranging from astronomy and course development to peace studies in Israel and language resources. Ten faculty members received the Dean's Award for Excellence. Quality teaching, superb student evaluations of their work, service on demanding committees and scholarly publications were among the good work.

Stewardship

Meeting people with significant connections to Manchester College is one of the perks for the vice president for college advancement. As the “new kid on the block,” I already have met hundreds of members of the Manchester College family. As I struggle to express the enormous importance of your ongoing support and the College’s gratitude, I realize one very special couple may tell the story for me.

College Union renovations and expansions are well under way for a fall 2007 dedication. But late in 2005, the project was still a dream with $1 million yet to be raised. Several College leaders agreed to call yet again upon some good friends of the College to boost the fund over the top. I chose Jeanette Miller ’50 and Robin Lahman, a couple I had yet to meet.

It was on a rainy December afternoon that I walked to the Lahman home, just a few blocks from campus. The farther I walked, the heavier the rain, and the higher my anxiety. The Lahmans already had contributed to the College Union project, and here I was, asking for more — and they didn’t even know me! I was breaking the rules of fund raising: Never ask for a gift on the first visit, and certainly not a leadership gift!

I arrived at the Lahman door, soaked from the knees down, and stepped out of my shoes and over the threshold. I felt immediately welcome. Before I could get around to why I was there, Robin and Jeanette asked me: “How can we help with the College Union project?”

That is how it is in fund raising. Another expense, another project, and always, always, always — we must feed The Manchester Fund with unrestricted dollars that solve a million of the College’s financial needs.

I have learned that people give for two reasons: They have the inclination, and they have the ability.

Robin and Jeanette love Manchester College, its mission and its values. It didn’t matter that Manchester’s request came from a stranger. They know their support makes a difference.

Thanks to all of the Robins and Jeanettes of the Manchester College family — every day, you make the difference!

Returning the Favor

This story begins at Camp Mack Day 1988, during their first year at Manchester College. That was the day Troy Fuller '92 and Michelle Meyer '92 '93 met. A lot has happened since then (including twin boys!), but a bond began to cement that September day — with each other and with the College.

Troy earned a Ph.D. and today is a research scientist for Pfizer Inc. pharmaceuticals in Kalamazoo, Mich. Michelle is an accountant for Kellogg Company in Battle Creek. Contributing loyally to Manchester since the late 1990s, the Fullers not only annually increase their gifts, their generosity is doubled through the matching gift programs of both of their employers.

They believe the College will use their gifts wisely. “There are a lot of opportunities at Manchester College,” Troy says. Michelle praises Manchester’s great accounting program, noting, “It’s the reason I passed the CPA exam.”

“Giving back is important to us,” Troy says of the couple’s membership in The President’s Circle of donors. “Faith, learning and service is what Manchester strives for – this is one way we can give back.”

Michelle especially recalls Arthur L. Gilbert, now professor emeritus of accounting: “He made me the strong person I am today.” Associate Professor William Day taught her accounting from a personal and financial perspective and she remembers him as “down to Earth.”

Troy chose research largely because of the influence of biology Professor David Kreps, and he also is pleased chemistry Professor Wilson Lutz (now emeritus) pushed him to learn more than he ever thought possible.

Now the Fullers are returning the favor. It’s that simple.

Continuing the Tradition

Madalyn Metzger '99 and Kristopher Brownlee '01

understand the significance of supporting their alma mater. After their marriage, they began contributing monthly to Manchester College, a little bit at a time. "If we continue to give a little bit over the course of a year, it really adds up when looking at the greater picture," Madalyn notes.

As students, Kris and Madalyn were familiar faces in the Music Department – Madalyn on the flute in concert band and singing in choir, Kris playing, sharing and testing his talent on a variety of instruments, but especially the saxophone. Occasionally, the couple continues to make music together.

A communication studies major, Madalyn is communication manager for MMA (Mennonite Mutual Aid). Kris was a dual major (music and psychology) who today is a full-time musician. Perhaps you heard him at President Jo Young Switzer's inauguration ceremony!

Madalyn has other reasons for her MC allegiance: She is a third-generation grad. She knew she would attend Manchester because it felt like home. It still does.

"It's almost like giving back to the community that built you up," adds Kris.

During her MC years, Madalyn worked in the development office, witnessing first-hand how very much donations and gifts impact Manchester. "I got to see that if the money wasn't coming in from donors, that it would be hard to keep a place like MC going," she says. "We want to continue the tradition for future students."

The Garbers: It's All About Family

To understand what Jim and Anne Winger Garber mean to Manchester College is to know what the College means to the Garbers.

“For us, this has been family,” says Jim. Despite the financial opportunity that came with his new IU MBA back in 1962, the couple and their four children were drawn back to their alma mater and North Manchester. (Both are 1950 grads.)

“We knew it was the right place to be,” says Anne, who would give 18 years to local schools as a second-grade teacher while her husband led development at the College.

“It became apparent to us we made the right decision,” agrees Jim. “We just love the College and love the people here. It just became a part of our lives.” They would raise four children here (“Students helped Gloria take her first steps.”), and all would attend the College. Two returned as employees: Chris '77 is associate vice president for financial affairs and director of operations and Julie '79 teaches and has led the Plowshares program and served as associate dean of academic affairs. Gloria '71 lives in Maryland and Tim '73 lives in Illinois.

Jim oversaw the March of Progress fund-raising campaign that included a new College Union back in the '60s, and as a volunteer provided leadership for the recently completed The Next Step! campaign that includes transformation of the union.

Their giving spans generosity — from consistent support of The Manchester Fund to leading the volunteer Ambassadors to hosting international students in their homes to including the College in their wills, to leading fund-raising campaigns and alumni gatherings.

The Garbers see it a natural part of their relationship with the College and the Church of the Brethren. It's what families do: Give and receive from each other.

The couple's Manchester College education extends far beyond their years as students. “It was a growing experience for us,” says Jim. “Our political and theological spirits have changed since we have been here — a welcome change for us. And we fell into friendship with some of the faculty members who were legends of the institution.” Many of those friends migrated “home” to Timbercrest Retirement Community, just a short golf cart ride from campus and its bustle of activity and enrichment.

While the couple spends more time of late with longtime friends, students fill their memories. They point to the international students and opportunities, the service learning and a campus committed to diversity ... of the College's foundation in faith, values and service.

“What better investment in the future? I just believe that potential leaders of the world are being developed,” says Jim. “We are committed to working hard for the health of Manchester College. We want to be part of that.”

Foundation for Loyalty

Tom Ravencroft '59x is a proud product of Manchester — even though he doesn't have a diploma from the College. Shortly after finishing high school in his hometown of Rochester, Ind., Tom married his high school sweetheart, Janet. Tom then began commuting every day to Manchester for classes, still working seven days a week for Dean Foods to support his family.

"I always liked Manchester, and I am grateful and happy that Manchester was there for me or I may never have gotten my start," Tom says of his one year at MC. A promotion at Dean Foods enabled him to finish his education at Purdue, but he remained true to Manchester, too.

He knows that small, independent schools face funding challenges not shared by larger, state-supported schools like his alma mater. For that reason, he says he's more inclined to support Manchester College. Tom and Janet have signed a five-year pledge to help transform the College Union.

Tom stays connected, and can list all kinds of reasons for his loyalty to Manchester — from its small class sizes to vibrant student-faculty relationships and high academic reputation. "Having the first woman president of Manchester College is already encouraging that more good things will happen in the future," he adds.

"Manchester College has such a good history. I think they'll continue to do well, but without support it isn't easy," says Tom. "Yet, here they are: Still going along strong, 45 years after I left!"

Members of The Otho Winger Society include Manchester College in their wills, trusts, retirement plans and other gift documents ... making a difference in the lives of future students.

"I wanted to help other people have the same chance as I did to go to college. We wanted to do for others what others have done for us."

— Cynthia Litke '86 McQuinn

(Manchester College is the beneficiary of her life insurance policy.)

"Manchester College's ideals and principals seem to fit ours."

— Emerson and Evelyn Niswander

The Niswander Fund for the Sciences was created through a charitable gift annuity agreement with Manchester College.
