A Revitalizing Year

With hearty commitment to graduate persons of ability and conviction, we celebrate a revitalizing year in which we have advanced Manchester College's strategic priorities. We ...

Transformed our strategic and operational approaches to recruit new students

Received generous, sustaining support for the College, even in the face of a struggling national economy, the mortgage crisis, and increases in fuel prices

Began using the entire "new" College Union – with its Success Center, flexible conference rooms, fabulous art Gallery G, Haist Commons, contemporary Oaks and Campus Store, and state-of-the-art kitchens

Celebrated the 40th anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s historic 1968 speech on campus

Heard impressive presentations by 35 students about their research at the annual Student Scholarship Symposium

And what happened as a result?

We exceeded our “stretch” goal of 360 first-year students and prepared to welcome the largest class in 25 years to campus in September

Surpassed our fund-raising goals, especially for The Manchester Fund, which finances daily operation of the College

The College Union is filled all hours of the day and night with students getting academic support in their new Success Center; and faculty, staff, students, alumni and friends are enjoying the art, speakers, special events, and delicious food

More than 97.8 percent of our May 2007 graduates had jobs, full-time volunteer service assignments, or were in graduate school within six months of commencement

Diversity on campus enhances our efforts to educate students to communicate respectfully across differences – essential in a healthy democracy

These amazing successes are the result of four strategic priorities that keep us focused. They guide us to decide what goes on our “to do” list and what goes on the “not to do list.” Be assured, we will continue to:

1. Tell a compelling institutional story to draw resources to the College,
2. Be “mission centered and market smart” to maximize our impact in the world,
3. Recruit and graduate a student body large enough to utilize optimally the College’s resources, and
4. Generate a financial margin sufficient to support the College’s mission and vision.

This 2007-2008 Annual Report comes to you in a spirit of authentic and deep gratitude. The College is strong today because of thousands of persons who give back to the school that helped them become persons of ability and conviction. On behalf of everyone at Manchester College, especially our students, I thank you.

Jo Young Switzer

Mission Statement

Manchester College respects the infinite worth of every individual and graduates persons of ability and conviction who draw upon their education and faith to lead principled, productive, and compassionate lives that improve the human condition.

Values Statement

As a primarily undergraduate, residential, liberal arts community rooted in the tradition of the Church of the Brethren, Manchester College values:

- Learning, because high academic expectations in an environment combining liberal arts and professional preparation equip graduates to live healthy, productive, and principled lives;
- Faith, because our diverse faiths call us to make the world a kinder and better place, establish justice, build peace amid strife, and model lives of agape (selfless love), tikkun olam (repairing a broken world), and salam (peace);
- Service, because committing self in service to others connects faith with action and abilities with convictions;
- Integrity, because honesty and trust are the foundations of teaching and learning; enriching, enduring relationships, and strong communities;
- Diversity, because understanding differences develops respect for ethnic, cultural, and religious pluralism; an international consciousness; and an appreciation for the infinite worth of every person; and
- Community, because a positive community sharpens self-identity, promotes acceptance of the demands of responsible citizenship, and transforms conflict into mutual respect.

Vision Statement

Manchester College will be best known as the college that guides and supports its students to accomplish levels of academic and personal achievement that surpass even their own expectations.

The campus will be infused with a commitment to student learning in the liberal arts, along with professional preparation for work, life, and service in a global society.

Manchester will be a student-centered college that inspires high standards, innovation, and energetic engagement.

We will continually seek new partnerships, weave new technologies into teaching and learning, design curricula, strengthen students' understanding of community, generate sufficient revenue to support operations, increase the endowment, and launch new ventures.

As this energizing vision is realized, everyone who studies and works here will say "what I do makes a difference."

2007-2008 Highlights

Admissions initiative nets exciting gains

The good news traveled all through the enrollment funnel: applications up 46 percent, admissions up 58 percent, deposits up 31 percent, and projections for the largest incoming class in more than 25 years. The Class of 2012 brings added diversity while retaining Manchester's attraction to first-generation Indiana college students.

Upper College Union opens to success

The redesigned upper College Union was an instant success for celebrations and gatherings of all sizes, with its expandable conference areas, reception areas, Gallery G and Success Center. Alumni and donors gathered at Homecoming to dedicate the $8.5 million pride. (The lower level, with food services, Campus Store and mailroom, opened in spring 2007.)

Donors endorse The Manchester Fund

Generous giving resulted in fund-raising hurrahs, despite an economy buffeted by budget-crushing fuel costs, mortgage news and war. The Manchester Fund that "pays the bills" for general operations rose 4.67 percent. Bequests totaled more than $2 million as alumni honored their College's mission in their wills.

Scholarship Symposium presenters raise the bar

Students presented graduate-level research for the 10th annual Student Research Symposium in April, which attracted a record 35 scholars and a loudly appreciative audience. Top prizes awarded research of the Milky Way and Iraq war crimes. Faculty mentored the presenters.

Fast Forward roll-out attracts national media

Already, 14 scholars have selected the new Fast Forward plan for a one-year jump on careers in accounting, biology-chemistry, political science, psychology and teaching. Manchester is the only Indiana school to offer a 4-in-3 bachelor's degree in all majors.

40th anniversary of MLK speech on campus

From the podium and microphone used by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. exactly 40 years ago, on Feb. 1 speakers recalled that final campus visit by the civil rights leader. Videos of King's 1968 visit, readings, and music renewed his message for an enthralled crowd.

The ultimate January Session: Iowa Caucus

Fifteen students of Professor Leonard Williams studied up on the process and the candidates (and met them), campaigned, blogged, shivered in the Iowa cold and witnessed caucuses for lessons of a lifetime.

Women net All-Sports Trophy

Two conference victories (earning trips to NCAA tournaments in tennis and basketball), and strong seasons in volleyball and track and field gave the Spartans a fourth-straight Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference Women's All-Sports Trophy.

More MC Fulbrights teach abroad

The entire faculty rose spontaneously in May to cheer Manchester's latest two Fulbright scholarship winners, who will teach English in Vietnam and South Korea. A total of 25 Fulbrights are Manchester College alumni – more per capita than any other Indiana school.

One-stop for financial, academic service

Paying tuition, seeking financial aid or collecting paychecks for campus jobs – students and prospective students now do it all in one place. Another consolidation, the Success Center in the upper College Union drew more than 720 students to study tables, writing coaches, tutors, academic counselors, and the Career Center. They logged more than 6,100 visits!

Giving for its Own Sake

As a “computer geek,” Styx fan and president of the family business, Tom Koehlke ’86 of West Chester, Ohio, wears many hats. One that fits quite comfortably: Philanthropist.

Giving to Manchester College isn’t about the rewards, says the accounting grad who is passionate about paying back his “debt” to his alma mater: “Manchester gave me the kind of help I didn’t even know I needed.”

The generations of alumni getting older must help the generations coming up, insists Koehlke, who assumed leadership of Koehlke Components from his father. The southern Ohio company supplies material to customers throughout the United States and to exporters and foreign governments.

“I started giving the year after I graduated,” recalls Koehlke. “I was the youngest member of the President’s Circle.” Giving to The Manchester Fund continues to be an annual priority for the Koehlkes, who also financially support the Arthur L. Gilbert Fund for Accounting and the transformed College Union.

A booth in the new Union is named for Koehlke and his wife, Michelle Kumfer ’88x Koehlke, who met at MC. While Koehlke shuns recognition for philanthropy, he agreed when a student Phonathon fundraiser for The Manchester Fund also suggested the booth naming and donation. (Koehlke is a former MC Phonathoner.)

The Koehlkes trust that the College will use their philanthropy wisely toward improving Manchester College in any way possible ... every year.

A Lifetime of Education at Manchester College

We think Manchester College has done a real service to the community,” says Isobel Rarick ’42 Pfeiffer, who met her husband of 63 years, Robert T. Pfeiffer ’42, on campus. “Students have the opportunity to have experiences that will enrich their lives and the lives of other people.”

The Manchester experience definitely impacted their lives. Both are career-long teachers, now emeriti professors of education administration – Robert for Kent State and Isobel for Akron University and West Georgia University.

The Pfeiffers say they donate to Manchester because of the personal and professional growth that the College gave not only to them, but also to their hometowns through socially and educationally conscious graduates. “Few people realize that Manchester in the late ’30s had a bigger education program than Indiana University. Manchester produced a lot of people who taught in the Warsaw area,” notes Isobel.

Their simple “we support Manchester whenever we can,” is an understatement for the Warsaw couple. The Pfeiffers’ contributions span the opportunities for donors, from membership in the Tower Society for their substantial gifts and the President’s Circle for their annual support, to The Manchester Fund and giving of their time to serve on the Holl-Kintner renovation advisory council.

Particularly meaningful – especially to future students – is the Pfeiffer-Rarick Scholarship Endowment for Manchester College students, supported by a charitable remainder trust. It means the Pfeiffers will keep on giving, forever inspiring future MC-educated citizens.

Repaying for Success, and Feeling Great About It

Dr. Jane E. Henney '69 has risen to the peaks of her profession, serving as commissioner of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and was acclaimed as a national "influencer" by a leading magazine. Then, the Hoosier native applied her leadership expertise by fulfilling an aggressive mission for the University of Cincinnati Medical Center.

"I never dreamed of doing the things that I've done, but I had a ton of college experience in my field and fantastic relations with faculty that really put me ahead," says Dr. Henney.

Her husband, Dr. Robert Graham, also is a high achiever in medicine, lending his leadership to the Federal Health Sector and family medicine. (Both now are professors with the University of Cincinnati.)

Dr. Henney's gifts to the College are diverse and treasured. She is serving a second term on the Board of Trustees. She delivered addresses for the 1990 commencement and a seminar at the dedication of the Science Center, giving generously to construction of what has become a signature structure on the MC campus. She funds scholarships and an endowment for a lecture series honoring her educator father, Harry H. Henney '35.

"Manchester gave me a lot," says Dr. Henney. "I've always felt good – in fact, great – about giving back time and money to the College. I consider it investment in an institution that is giving me a good return."

A Legacy of Graduates and Giving Back

The Rouch family has a long history of Manchester graduates. Dr. Carl Rouch '90 lists his MC relatives with pride: his grandmother, grandfather, mother, father, sister, brother-in-law, four aunts, and an uncle.

The legacy of Rouch giving goes back even further. "When my grandfather died, he wrote a scholarship for Rouch descendants," says Carl. Continuing the tradition, Carl and his sister Rosalie Rouch '87 McBride sponsored a biology office in the Science Center in memory of their father, John H. Rouch '62.

Each Rouch family member has his or her own reasons for attending Manchester College, and for Dr. Rouch, it was a desire for a well-rounded education. "It was an easy fit because they had a great biology program," he says. Without his training in the variety of liberal arts and sciences, however, Rouch believes he would not have become the doctor, or coworker, he is today.

"There were classes outside of my major that were really useful, like Conflict Resolution – I use that every day," notes the interventional cardiologist for St. Francis Hospital in Indianapolis. "You have to learn group dynamics to learn to be a team leader."

"I worry that larger institutions tend to be more focused on generating degrees, so they take a two-dimensional approach to education. Manchester provides a broader perspective on life."

So Dr. Rouch (and his wife Dindy) give to Manchester College. The busy cardiologist wishes he could give more, especially of his time.

Is it Right?

This issue of Celebrating Stewardship gratefully recognizes gifts to Manchester College during its 2007-2008 fiscal year: July 1, 2007 through June 30, 2008.

The Office of College Advancement strives to acknowledge every single gift ... from checks and bequests to real estate, vehicles, equipment, and treasured items. We sincerely hope that your name appears here exactly the way you want it. If not, please tell us!
