

Sunday,
Nov. 12
-
Saturday, Nov. 18

International Education Week

Sunday, Nov. 12

Celebrating Diversity Workshop
11:45 a.m.
Jo Young Switzer Center, upper level

The workshop provides a positive environment for participants to discuss issues of stereotyping, prejudice and mistreatment of all groups, including those defined by gender, race, heritage, family roles, religion, age, sexual orientation, nationality, geographical region, economic class, job and physical capacity. Concrete skills and resources are developed to assist in promoting fairness and inclusion. Sponsored by Department of Sociology, Social Work, and Criminal Justice.

Does Race Affect Intelligence?
5 p.m.
Intercultural Center

A discussion over the relationship between intelligence and race. Are some races inherently smarter than others? Does race even have anything to do with intelligence? Sponsored by Office of Multicultural Affairs.

Monday, Nov. 13

TESOL Information Table
11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.
Jo Young Switzer Center

Shoshannah McKinney, Director, Huntington University Institute for TESOL Studies.

Tuesday, Nov. 14

Soul Food Dinner
8:30 p.m.
Wampler Auditorium

"What is Soul-Food?" A social event that allows everyone to interact with one another and have an opportunity to enjoy a feast from the soul! Menu includes fried chicken, macaroni and cheese, sweet potatoes, greens, and so much more! Sponsored by Black Student Union.

Sexualities and Genders Around the World
9 p.m.
Student Activities Center

Sponsored by United Sexualities & Genders.

Wednesday, Nov. 15

World Affairs Conference
10 a.m.
Jo Young Switzer Center, upper level

Manchester University is host to the World Affairs Conference sponsored by the Rotary Club of North Manchester. Students from area high schools explore issues of the day with area experts. The conference focuses on immigration and refugees. Sponsored by Rotary Club.

Study Abroad Information Table
10.30 a.m.
Jo Young Switzer Center

Sponsored by Study Abroad and Off-Campus Academic Programs.

World Trivia Night
Fort Wayne campus
7 p.m.
Rooms 146, 148, and 150

Teams of 4-6 people compete in this internationally-themed trivia night. Prizes for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place teams; RSVP to OMA@manchester.edu or call (260) 982-5423 to reserve a table. Sponsored by Office of Multicultural Affairs.

Mythbusters: Asian Stereotypes
8 p.m.
Intercultural Center

Sponsored by Asian Awareness Association.

Thursday, Nov. 16

My Experience in New Zealand
4 p.m.
ACEN 234

Sponsored by Study Abroad and Off-Campus Academic Programs.

French Night
8 p.m.
Intercultural Center

An event about the complete French experience with a taste of cuisine, culture and music. Sponsored by Manchester University International Association.

Friday, Nov. 17

TESOL Institute Presentation
4 p.m.
Intercultural Center

Shoshannah McKinney, Director, Huntington University Institute for TESOL Studies.

World Trivia Night
7 p.m.
Jo Young Switzer Center, upper level

Teams of 4-6 people compete in this internationally-themed trivia night. Prizes for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place teams; RSVP to OMA@manchester.edu or call (260) 982-5423 to reserve a table. Sponsored by Office of Multicultural Affairs.

Saturday, Nov. 18

Taste of Africa
6-8 p.m.
Wampler Auditorium

Taste of Africa creates a platform for students from various African nations to showcase their individual cultures through food and dance. Sponsored by African Students Association.

Sunday, Nov. 19

Immigrants: Undue Burden or Economic Saviors?
5 p.m.
Intercultural Center

Given the current political and cultural moment, immigration has come to center stage in our civic discourse. Students will discuss the role of immigrants in American society. A dichotomous debate will be presented whether immigrants to the United States pose an undue burden on the American economy or if immigrants serve as 'economic saviors' to a weakened American economy. Sponsored by Office of Multicultural Affairs.

Manchester University

OFFICE OF MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS