Join us Saturday, August 28, for an opportunity to canoe the Eel River while learning about its natural and historical beauty. The stretch of river between Beargrass Creek and the Stockdale Mill is a mild float that is appropriate for all ages. We will examine the fish species, learn about otters, experience the Native American history and learn about the Stockdale Mill. Before launching, there will be shuttle service and a brief safety and informational meeting at Stockdale Mill. Come out with us for a day of fun and relaxation and reconnect with our natural heritage! Reservation form is on the back of this flyer and is required to participate. Sign up early, space is limited! This event is free and open to the public, so bring your family, friends and neighbors!!!

Canoes, paddles, life jackets, lunch and snacks will all be provided free of charge of charge!
