Manchester College

Manchester College, founded in 1889, is an independent liberal arts and sciences college of the Church of the Brethren. In 2011-2012, 1,320 students from 24 states and 24 countries studied here.

Manchester College traces its origins to the Roanoke (Ind.) Classical Seminary founded by the United Brethren Church in 1860. The Seminary became Manchester College in 1889, when the school was moved to North Manchester. In 1895, the Church of the Brethren purchased the campus and this affiliation continues today. Mount Morris College (Ill.) merged with Manchester College in 1932. The College welcomes students of all faiths and celebrates its relationship with the Church of the Brethren. On July 1, 2012, Manchester College will become Manchester University.

Manchester has been fully accredited since 1932 by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. The Teacher Education Program is accredited by both the Indiana Professional Standards Board and the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education. The Social Work Program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. The Athletic Training Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education. The Doctor of Pharmacy program has been granted precandidate accreditation status by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education.

Mission Statement

Manchester College respects the infinite worth of every individual and graduates persons of ability and conviction who draw upon their education and faith to lead principled, productive, and compassionate lives that improve the human condition.

Values Statement

As a primarily undergraduate, residential, liberal arts community rooted in the tradition of the Church of the Brethren, Manchester College values:

- Learning, because high academic expectations in an environment combining liberal arts and professional preparation equip graduates to live healthy, productive, and principled lives;
- Faith, because our diverse faiths call us to make the world a kinder and better place, establish justice, build peace amid strife, and model lives of agape (selfless love), tikkun olam (repairing a broken world), and salam (peace);
- Service, because committing self in service to others connects faith with action and abilities with convictions;
- Integrity, because honesty and trust are the foundations of teaching and learning, enriching, enduring relationships, and strong communities;
- Diversity, because understanding differences develops respect for ethnic, cultural, and religious pluralism; an international consciousness; and an appreciation for the infinite worth of every person; and
- Community, because a positive community sharpens self-identity, promotes acceptance of the demands of responsible citizenship, and transforms conflict into mutual respect.

Academic Ceremonies and Regalia

Academic dress, inspired centuries ago in Europe, has evolved in the United States since colonial times. Today most colleges and universities, including Manchester, observe the academic dress code of the American Council on Education.

A scholar's highest degree determines the robe. Gowns for the master's and doctoral degrees are usually ankle length and, for bachelor's and master's degrees, untrimmed. A doctor's degree gown is more elaborate, with velvet facing and three velvet bars on full, bell-shaped sleeves.

Mortarboards are the standard headwear except for persons with doctorates who may chose a soft, rounded tam. Hoods, once worn on the head for warmth, are now draped over the shoulders and are longer for doctors than for masters.

Colors help tell the story. The color of the hood lining indicates the university where the graduate degree was earned. The color of the hood trim, satin for masters and velvet for doctorates, identifies the scholar's field. For those with doctorates, the velvet facing and bars of the gown may be black or the color of the academic discipline. Once only black, the gown itself can now be in the color of the university awarding the degree.

Accounting and Business – drab (beige)

Honors Cords and Graduation with Distinction

Students graduating with honors wear gold cords draped around the neck. To graduate with distinction, a candidate for the baccalaureate degree must have completed a minimum of 96 semester hours in residence at Manchester College and accumulated a grade point average (GPA) at or above 3.650. There are three levels of graduation with honors: summa cum laude (with highest honors) requires a grade point average of 3.950 to 4.000; magna cum laude (with high honors) requires a GPA of 3.850 to 3.949; and cum laude (with honors) requires a GPA of 3.65 to 3.849. The ceremony today recognizes students who met the requirements for graduation with honors at the end of the 2012 January Session. Final determination for graduation with honors will be made when all work is complete.

The Honors Diploma is awarded to seniors who have maintained a grade point average of at least 3.5, completed five semester hours of honors study each academic year, with at least one course in each of three specified divisions, and successfully completed an honors thesis.

Pledge of Social and Environmental Responsibility

Students and faculty of Manchester who support The Graduation Pledge wear green ribbons on their gowns. This pledge is a commitment to make a difference in the world. Manchester College served as the headquarters of The Graduation Pledge Alliance from 1996 to 2007. Since its inception in the late 1980s, the Pledge has grown to more than 100 campuses in the United States and around the world. The Pledge is sponsored by the Peace Studies Institute and the Accounting and Business Club.

“I pledge to explore and take into account the social and environmental consequences of any job I consider and will try to improve these aspects of any organizations for which I work.”

Processional	Alleluia, Praise Our God – Heinrich Scheidemann	Robin J. Gratz
*Welcome and Prayer of Invocation		Walter J. Wiltschek, Campus Pastor
*Opening Hymn	Will You Let Me Be Your Servant (v. 1-2, 4, 6)

Will you let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you?
Pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant, too.

We are pilgrims on the journey, we are trav'lers on the road.
We are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

I will weep when you are weeping, when you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.

Will you let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you?
Pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant, too.

Senior Anthem	I Find My Feet Have Further Goals

I could not prove the Years had feet –
Yet confident they run
Am I, from symptoms that are past
And Series that are done –

I find my feet have further Goals –
I smile upon the Aims
That felt so ample – Yesterday –
Today's – have vaster claims –

I do not doubt the self I was
Was competent to me –
But something awkward in the fit –
Proves that – outgrown – I see –

Meditation “The Welcome, the Farewell, and the Time In Between” Jo Young '69 Switzer, President

*Closing Hymn Come, Thou Fount

Come, thou fount of ev'ry blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace.
Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount, I'm fixed upon it, mount of God's unchanging love.

Oh, to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let the grace now, like a fetter, bind my wand'ring heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love.
Here's my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

God, we ask you, help us daily, better to display thy light.
To our neighbors, to the poorest, to the blind who long for sight.
Show us how to love the stranger, lead us to each aching need.
O God, fill us, make us worthy, in our word and in our deed.

HONORARY DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Herbert E. “Herb” Chinworth, a chemical engineer retired from The Dow Chemical Co. in Michigan, is a longtime benefactor of Manchester College. His generous philanthropic support has touched many aspects of student learning over the years, particularly in support for the Science Center and in equipment for the natural sciences.

A native of Warsaw, Ind., Chinworth attended Manchester for his first two years of college and completed his engineering studies at Purdue University in 1943. During World War II, he served on a landing craft with the United States Navy. After the war, he earned his master’s degree from the University of Michigan before returning to Dow. Chinworth spent most of his career living and working in Ludington, Mich., where he supervised a Dow catalyst plant. He was active in the Boy Scouts and his Presbyterian church in Ludington.

Chinworth and his wife, Arlene, now live in North Manchester. They have four grown children, including the Rev. James Chinworth, a former campus pastor at the College and now an associate pastor at the Manchester Church of the Brethren.
